

361 Infrastructure Partners Named to ImpactAssets 50 Recognized as an “Emerging Impact Manager”

DENVER, Mar. 31, 2020 — 361 Infrastructure Partners, a wholly owned subsidiary of 361 Capital, was recently named to the ImpactAssets 50 2020. Selected from a record number of applicants, 361 Infrastructure Partners was recognized as an “Emerging Impact Manager,” a new category this year, which highlights impact fund innovation and newer fund managers that demonstrate the potential to create a meaningful impact. 361 Infrastructure Partners was one of only 16 emerging fund managers named to the list.

ImpactAssets 50 is a publicly available, online database for impact investors, family offices and financial advisors and institutional investors that features a diversified listing of private capital fund managers that deliver social and environmental impact, as well as financial returns.

361 Infrastructure Partners’ recognition as an “Emerging Impact Manager” is significant as the category represents fund managers that are often taking unique approaches to impact investing across a variety of themes and geographies.

“With record applicants and assets under management, the IA 50 continues to reflect the rapid growth and interest in impact investing,” said Jed Emerson, ImpactAssets Senior Fellow, and IA 50 Review Committee Chair. “And to ensure we’re capturing the best future ideas, we’ve added emerging impact managers, who have the hunger, creativity and a willingness to explore alternatives that more seasoned fund managers may not.”

“It’s an honor for 361 Infrastructure Partners to be named to this elite list of managers,” said Tom Florence, founder and CEO of 361 Infrastructure Partners. “Being recognized for our commitment to impact investing and to innovation is rewarding as we work to help address the more than $4.5 trillion deferred maintenance issue that exists today in the United States.”

The ImpactAssets 50 is an annually updated list that is intended to illustrate the breadth of impact fund managers operating today.
